

AUDITOR'S OFFICE.

Houston, 5 July 1838.

This day came C. B. Stewart and says the annexed instrument is just, true and original, and the only one that Stewart has offered for liquidation; that ~~he~~ Stewart owes the government nothing on his own account, or on account of any other person: to the best of his knowledge & belief

Sworn to before

TX

[Signature]
Auditor.

718-1-4