Republic of Texas
Executive Department
Austin January 5th 1841.

To Messrs
James Hamilton &
A. S. Burnley
Commissioners to negotiate the Loan of Five Millions of Dollars.

Gentlemen,

At sight of this my second bill, my first of this tenor & date unpaid, please pay out of any moneys which may be obtained by a negotiation of the bonds of this Republic now in your hands, the sum of One thousand three hundred & seventy six dollars $1.376.00 to the order of Nathaniel Amory Esqr. and charge the same to the Treasury Department, it being for one half his annual salary as Secretary of the Texan Legation near the Government of the United States, and the Contingent expenses of the same.

$1.376.00

David G. Burnet

By the President
Wm. Sevy
Ad. Sec. Treasury

TX

B5-15