AUDITOR'S OFFICE,

Houston, 6th Nov 1837

from what he knows of claimant & his business he believes

This day came B. H. Perkins and says the annexed instrument is just, true and original, and the only one that claimant has offered for liquidation: that he owes the government nothing on his own account or on account of any other person.

Sworn to before

[illegible] Auditor.