Republic of Texas }
Washington County } This day personally appeared before me, Joseph Daniels - Notary Public in and for the County aforesaid - George W. Terrell, who being first duly sworn, makes oath that he did, as Indian commissioner, pay to one - Chatfield the sum of thirteen dollars - for beef furnish=ed the Indian commissioners at Bird's Fort in August 1843 - and that he did take the receipt of the said Chatfield for the said amount of money - but that the said receipt is either lost or so mis=laid that he cannot find it.
