I, George W. Hensley, do Solemnly swear that James C. Thompson sold me his Bounty Land coming to him for his services rendered as a private in Capt. K. B. McCarty's Company, 1st regiment infantry from 2d February, 1836, to 22d June 1837, (Twelve hundred and eighty acres) and that subsequently I, George W. Hensley reassigned or sold the same claim to the said James C. Thompson, for the reason that I had in the first instance purchased it of him at an under rate and for his own accommodation, and did not wish to take any advantage of the necessity of said individual, ~~and~~ that subsequently the said Thompson legally transferred the same to Cont. H. R. A. Wigginton who is now the proper owner of said Claim, I George W. Hensley, do also Solemnly swear that I have no knowledge of how the original Copy was taken from the proper office, but do know that I reassigned the Copy I held to the said Thompson, and further the deponent sayeth not —

George W. Hensley

The foregoing was sworn and Subscribed to before me at office in the town of Texana

Given under my hand this 20th day of January 1838
