Auditors Office
Columbia Jan 31st 1837

This day come Joseph Thompson and says the annexed instrument is Just true and original and he Owes the Government nothing also come Wiley Harrison and says he was acquainted with the price of corn in the neighbourhood at the time and place specified which was about the first of April 1836 in said Instrument and that it was worth three dollars per bushel.

Sworn to before [signature] auditor

45
3
$ 135

034-2