IN THE NAME OF THE PEOPLE OF TEXAS,

FREE, SOVEREIGN, AND INDEPENDENT,

I, Thomas Jefferson Chambers, Commandant General of the Army of Reserve, for the protection of the Liberties of Texas, do certify.

That Coleman & Dawson of Louisville Ky. has furnished Twelve Hundred & Eight dollars in freight for the use of the Division under my command; therefore, by virtue of the authority with which I am invested, by the decree of the Republic of Texas, of the 7th day of January 1836, and the corresponding commission, dated the 9th day of the same Month, by which I am authorized to pledge the faith of the Republic, for the means to raise, equip, provision, and transport the aforesaid army, I do hereby pledge the faith of the Republic of Texas, for the payment of the said sum of Twelve hundred & eight dollars to the above-named Coleman & Dawson their heirs, representatives, or assigns, with an interest of Ten ——— per cent. per annum, and make this credit receivable by the Government in discharge of debts due the Republic for lands.

Done on the 27th day of April 183[illegible]

T. Jefferson Chambers
Gen. C. A. R.
