Auditors office
Marion 17th Oct. 1837

This day come N. B. Dewees and says he was well acquainted with a grey mule the property of William Thompson and one of the mules mentioned in the annexed instrument and it was worth $125. also one cream colloured mule worth $125. also one other cream colloured mule worth $75. and one brown mule worth $75. which were the mules furnished as stated in the annexed Instrument

Sworn to before

[signature] 1st Auditor

040.11