Mary J. Anderson
vs.
The State of Texas

This day came on to be heard the application of Mary J. Anderson for a Pension from the State of Texas and the said applicant having appeared by her attorney and the State being represented by her County attorney, and it appearing to the Court that due notice as required by law of said application has been given by the Clerk, and the Court having heard the evidence and being satisfied that the application states such facts as are required by law to entitle said applicant to a Pension and was in indigent circumstances at the passage of the act, or when the act took effect for the relief of the Texas Veterans, and has been in indigent circumstances from that time to the present, and that she is in indigent circumstances now. It is therefore ordered adjudged and decreed by the Court that the Clerk of this Court do issue to said applicant Mary J. Anderson a Certified
