

AUDITOR'S OFFICE.

Houston, July 26 1838.

This day came Thomas J. Weston and says the annexed instrument <sup>is</sup> just, true and original, and the only one that <sup>has</sup> offered for liquidation; that ~~he~~ <sup>claims</sup> owes the government nothing on <sup>his</sup> own account, or on account of any other person: to the best of knowledge and belief

Sworn to before

A. M. Wilson Auditor.

2515