48. John Cherry
vs.
The State of Texas

This day came on to be heard the application of John Cherry for a Pension from the State of Texas and the said applicant having appeared by his attorney and the State being represented by her County Attorney, and it appearing to the Court that due notice as required by law of said application has been given by the Clerk, and the Court having heard the evidence, and being satisfied that the application states such facts as are required by law to entitle said applicant to a Pension, and was in indigent Circumstances at the passage of the act or when the act took effect for the relief of the Texas Veterans, and has been in indigent Circumstances from that time to the present, and that he is in indigent Circumstances now. It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the Clerk of this Court do issue to said applicant John Cherry a Certified Copy of said application, and a
