The State of Texas } I Thomas Dever a County of Liberty } citizen of the county of Liberty and State of Texas do solemnly swear that on or about the 8th day of October A.D. 1835 I joined the army of Texas at Gonzales and attached myself to the company of Captain James Fanning and served therein some two or three weeks until the arrival of more Volunteers from my home (the same being the Municipality of Liberty) when we were Organized into a separate Company of which Andrew Briscoe was elected Captain in which I continued to serve under the immediate command of James Fanning then acting Lt. Col. until permitted to return home by Genl. Austin Comdr in chief, (with many others) to prepare for a winter campaign which having done and expecting to march the next day for the seat of war news arrived of the fall of the Alamo which terminated the campaign of the fall of 1835
