State of Missouri
County of St. Louis ss.

Perry J. Moore of the City of St. Louis in the State of Missouri being first duly sworn on his oath states; I was born at Millsville in the County of Loudon in the State of Virginia on the 17th day of August 1815; In September 1st. 1836. I enlisted under Captain Burroughs at Zanesville Ohio. as volunteer in the Army of the Republic of Texas; went with the company to New Orleans and from there to the mouth of Matagorda Bay, where we were landed from there the company marched to Dimmit's Landing and from Dimmit's Landing to a camp between there and Texana, called Smith, Camp Washington, at this camp I was mustered into the service as a volunteer soldier in the army of the Republic for the period of nine months from date of our Enlistment, September 1st. 1836: from Camp Washington we marched up the West Branch of the Navidad to a camp West of Texana, at this last camp, a duel was fought between General Felix Huston and General Johnson in which Johnson was shot through the hips; from