The State of Texas }
County of Bee }

Before me the undersigned authority personally came and appeared Patrick Quinn a citizen of Bee County well and personally known to me.—

And at the same time and place personally came and appeared John Crawn and James T. Quinn both citizens of the County and State above written and well known to me to be the same persons named in the foregoing instrument of writing.—

That Patrick Quinn the present is the same and identical person contemplated under and by virtue of the legislation of the State of Texas of July 28, 1876.—

[illegible]