would recommend the court to reconsider said case, and in the event of their still adhering to their decision the President would respectfully ask to be furnished with the reasons of their decision to enable him to make up his own on appeal of the parties –

17th April 1839

Mirabeau B. Lamar