Personally came before me A Brigham auditor John Bright and says the annexed instrument are just, true and original, also acknowledges to have received a draft in his favor for one hundred and eighty four dollars in full for his services up to the 22 of July 1836. The deponent further acknowledges to have received fifty dollars in cash which was paid him on a draft given him at Bejar by Col Grant on the Govt of Texas, for a Horse, saddle & bridle which the said Bright received of the Committee of Safety of Nacogdoches, which Horse &c was supposed at that time to be a gift, and further says that the fifty dollars so received, he spent in purchasing articles for his comfort, ~~while in ill health~~, in consequence of which as well as the severe hardships he has undergone in service the said 50 dollars has not been deducted from his wages
