As agent General for Texas I have this day bought of Wm Brookfield a bill of supplies amounting to Nine hundred and three dollars and four cents - On account of which I have paid said Brookfield two hundred dollars, and agreed that the balance shall be paid by the government within twelve months from this time, with eight per cent per annum interest - The bill of said goods handed over to the Secretary of the Navy and subjects to his control - the Secretary of the Treasury to sanction this arrangement, take in this obligation, and issue his obligation for it.

Robert Mitchell
Genl Genl

New Washington
[illegible] April 1836 -

Personally came before me A Brigham auditor William Brookfield, on oath says that the foregoing is just true & original, that he is not indebted to government, also acknowledges to have received a draft on the Treasury for seven hundred & three dollars & four cents in full

Columbia
Nov 29. 1836

with 8 per cent interest from 9 April 1836

TX

William Brookfield

Sworn to and signed before
A. Brigham Auditor

047-9-2