Dear General:

In regard to your letter of recent date requesting the return of my Loyalty Ranger Commission, I beg to advise that upon the 15th day of Jan. 1919 I lost my pocket book containing my commission and other papers, and have been unable to recover same.

If agreeable to your department you may consider this as my resignation from the service.

Thanking you for the honor of your appointment and assuring you that at all times in the future I will be glad to serve your department I beg to remain

Respectfully yours

Dr. A. D. McAlpine.
