Executive Department

Austin 1st July 1839.

Nothing appearing in any of the Departments derogatory to the Character of Col. C. F. Waymouth except an Executive Order dated December 24th 1837 dishonorably discharging him from the Service of the Republic; and inasmuch as said Order seems to have been grounded upon no Charges or any evidence of improper Conduct the same is hereby revoked and rescinded and Col Waymouth fully restored to all the Civil rights of which he has been deprived; And to this end the Secretary of War will make the necessary entry on the records of his Department.

To the Sec'y of War

Signed Mirabeau B. Lamar

Certify the above to be a true Copy of file in my office
