law insufficient to sustain them, I can see no reason why the Attorney should not be entitled to his fees for the services actually rendered.

My opinion therefore is, that under the circumstances herein stated, the Dist: Atty is entitled to his fees in proportion to the services rendered in each case —

James Webb
Atty Genl

TX