Republic of Texas } This Certifies that I hereby County of Bastrop } appoint Genl Edward Burleson my true and lawful attorney for me and in my name to present the discharges to the proper officer for auditing and allowance and to do all that shall be necessary in effecting the same as I myself would do were I present;

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 28th day of March 1838 W. J. Wells

Republic of Texas } This day came Wayman C.
County of Bastrop } Wells who says the above discharges are just true and original, and that he owes the Government nothing on his own account nor on account of any other person, nor has he embezzled any arms munitions of war belonging to the Republic of Texas, or caused the same to have been done.
