While I was assistant Quartermaster Genl. of the army in the months of July & August 1836 the army encamped on the Coleto and corn was very scarce none could be purchased and could it have been, I do not believe it could have been had for less than Two dollars per bushel. Houston November 30th. 1837 — — C. Bennet

TX

C11-3-2