Houston Jany 12. 1837.

I hereby certify that up to the time of my resignation as secretary of War, James Whaeton had faithfully performed the duties of Commissary, under F. Nibling, Asst Commissary General, that at the time of my examination of the Department, at Texana, he gave satisfaction, and reported correctly to his superior officer, in whose hands, to my knowledge he deposited, a summary, and satisfactory report of his proceedings.
