Republic of Texas }
County of Shelby } April 22d 1837.

This day personally appeared ~~before~~ Moses Wootan before me George V. Lusk chief Justice, in and for said county, and after being duly sworn deposeth & sayeth that he never baffled nor defrauded the Government out off any thing on his own account or on the account of any other person, & that he is in no wise indebted the Government of Texas in the least for any thing that he has not received any thing therefrom with exception of one pair of Brogan shoes—
