The Republic of Texas County of Harrisburg

The under signed one of the Justices of the peace in and for the County of Harrisburg Being called on to visit Francis H Williams in his sick bead, For the purpose of hearing intestimoney and taking his deposition to fill the letter of the law for purposes herein after named. To enable him the said Francis H Williams to settle by agent all his interests both Civil and Military, in the Republic of Texas, Both as a Citizen, and a Soldier in Capt. Dawsons Company of Cavalry as appears from the face of the discharge Bearing date Houston January the 18th, 1845.

The deponent after being duly sworn according to law Deposeth and says, that he is sick and in a state too low and weak to attend to the settling of his Claims on the government of the Republic of Texas, And for that reason he the deponent has made Joshua Owen Blair of the afore said County his attorney, agent and substitute, to ask demand and recieve, for the deponent, in manner and form as follows, All that is due the Deponent. Both Civil and Military as a Citizen and Solder as a bove stated, in the Army of the Republic of Texas,

The Deponent sayeth, that he considereth that the government is oweing him for all the clothing due from the commencement of his enlistment up to the day of his discharge. For this reason that he the deponent never recieved from the government one article of clothing, from the day of his enlistment up to the day of his discharge.

The Deponent farther says that he the

K17-4