This certifies that H. R. Williams enrolled his name & entered into the service of Texas on the [illegible] of March for a term of three months, discharged his duty faithfully as a soldier, was in the Battle of San Jacinto, and his term of service having expired is this day honourably discharged.

Goliad Tuno the 6th 1836

W. M. Logan
Capt.

[illegible]