I do certify that I have examined the foregoing Bills of Cost & on comparison with the original Bill & the Records of the Court find them to be in accordance with law & that at the October term 1838 of the Hon. the District Court of the County of Washington H. A. Willis was Clerk & Benton Cocke Sheriff of said Court

I do further certify that in all the foregoing cases entered Nolle Prosequi, it having been determined by the Court that the Act entitled an Act to prevent the opening of Institutions printing or lithographs promissory Notes Approved December 14th 1837 was Unconstitutional all the foregoing proceedings being founded upon that act.

M. C. Whitaker

District Atty

July 9th 1842

Second Auditor's Office
Austin 10 July 1840

I have examined the foregoing account and am constrained to reject the same for want of the approval of the Dist. Judge which is required by law —

Thos. Evans
2d Auditor