Whereas on the 19th June 1837 I John W. Tibbatts sold to the Commissary General A. S. Thruston of the Government of Texas & took the obligations of the said Government signed by the said A. S. Thruston Commissary General for the sum of Ten Thousand and Eighty dollars, payable in Six months from the date with interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum, and also land warrants to the amount of Twenty Thousand, one hundred & Sixty acres, as security for the payment of said bonds, all which will appear by said bond & pledge in the hands of Doctor John W. King who has become the proprietor thereof — These are therefore to acknowledge & certify to the proper authorities of the Government of Texas that the said Doctor John W. King is the owner of all my right & interest in said bond & land scrip & has full right to use & dispose of the same, as I myself could at any time have done —
