Personally came and appeared before me A. Brigham Auditor James C. Neill and says that the annexed Instrument is just, true and Original, and that he is not indebted to Government. also says that the several amounts of Cash was advanced by him between the 8th of January and the 10th of February 1836, and further states that when he left the Alamo on the 14th of February 1836 his furlow his public Books and papers was left at that place, and that they were destroyed by the fall before the Alamo on the 6th of March following. —

Sworn to before A. Brigham Auditor