I certify that Lt. Jno. R. Davis was appointed by me and regularly commissioned a Paymaster Quartermaster of the army under my command with the rank of Captain, that he discharged himself actively and efficiently in the recruiting service under my orders in various parts of the United States and that he has drawn neither pay nor rations, having borne his own expenses. At the close of the last campaign he returned to Texas with orders to report to the War Department for further service and instructions.

Houston Nov. 27. 1837.
