Treasury Department
Washington Dec. 7th 1838.

I Certify that the sum of one thousand three hundred & twelve 61/100 Dollars is found to be due A. S. Thruston, late Commissary General of Purchases, agreeably to the annexed Statement — and the auditor will admit the same to audit, agreeably to law.

I further Certify that a balance of Seven hundred & thirty three 75/100 Dollars, deducted by the 1st. Auditor from the account of A. S. Thruston, has been settled with this Department by the return of Land Scrip to an equal amount, and the same is now coming to him.

Henry Smith
Sec. of the Treasury

Account Current of
A. S. Thruston
late Commissary Gen. of Purchases to Sept. 1837.