and State aforesaid this day came and personally appeared Edward A. Dixon who is personally well known to me and who acknowledged the foregoing instrument of writing or act of substitution under the foregoing Power of Attorney to be his act and deed to all intents and purposes.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of Court at Office on this 5th. day of March A.D. 1860.

W. Hood
Judge of Probate