Republic of Texas

To Henry Austin as legal representative of his son James T. Austin Deceased, Dr. To the pay and emoluments allowed by the act of Congress of February 9th, 1840 to the volunteers who served in the attack upon Mier for his son James T. Austin, who was a volunteer, member of the Brazoria Company commanded by Charles H. Rice, and was killed at the battle of Mier.

Amount according to the return of Captain Rice, on file in the office of the Auditor and Comptroller, ... $600,00

Galveston
August 25th, 1841.

Henry Austin

State of Texas,
County of Galveston } ss

Be it remembered that on this the twenty fifth day of August, A.D. 1841 before me James P. Nash, Notary Public in and for this county, duly commissioned and sworn, personally appeared Henry Austin to me well known who after being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists deposed that the amount against the Republic of Texas as above set forth is just and that the statement that his son James T. Austin served as volunteer in the Company of Captain Charles H. Rice, in the campaign against Mier, where he was killed in battle, is true and that the applicant is his legal representative.

In testimony whereof I the said Notary