Duplicate –

New York. May. 30th 1849.

To
Jno M. Swisher Esq. Auditor and
James B. Shaw Esq. Comptr.
Austin Texas.

Gentlemen.

I enclose a letter of introduction to Mr Shaw from S. H. Brower Esq. of this city to which I beg leave to refer you

By the mail of this day I shall send to your address $3010 in the notes of the Republic of Texas of which $3000 are in $20's & $10 in two fives.

You will please acknowledge receipt of these notes and I will thank you to inform me at the same time when the bonds to be given in lieu of them will be ready. Also be good enough to advise me by two mails preceding the remittance that the bonds will be mailed on a certain day; & when the bonds are ready to mail and your advice written, please take bonds and letter of advice to the Post Master, let him examine them, see them enclosed and give you a memo under his signature, dated on the day of mailing that said bonds (enumerating them) were examined by him and in his presence placed in an envelope, addressed to myself — N. York & mailed by him for that destination, signed — Post Master. Austin, Texas.