E B Peck Esqr Dear Sir

Your Will please have the Claims herewith sent collected immediately. Go to Morrow & you can advise in the last day. That Claims can be brought in. This Claim as you will see is in favour of ~~[illegible]~~ Bennett. By the receipt of a letter from you stating that you have other Claims which I gave you duly credit for I did myself the pleasure. Your will please attend to this matter immediately & oblige your most obedient servt

Geo. I. Hill

P.S. To Col W. L. Robards

~~[illegible]~~ Sir I wrote the above note to E. B. Peck requesting him to attend to business therein specified. As he had some business of a like character for his house for me, but as it is exceedingly doubtful whether Peck will be at home when this gets in inasmuch as he is so closely engaged in the political strife of the day. It has been suggested to me by your friends Judge McGinnon. That I had better request of you to do the ~~[illegible]~~ requesting of E. B. Peck. Sir the above letter
