The State of Texas,
Liberty County.

Know all men by these presents, that I, James B. Reavis, of the State and County above named, have made, constituted, and appointed, and do by these presents make, constitute, and appoint, William Fields, also of the State and County aforesaid, my true and lawful attorney, for me, and in my name, to ask for, demand and receive, of the proper officers of the State Government, any and all amounts of money due me for military services rendered the late Republic of Texas, and to receipt for the same — and to do any and all other legal acts necessary to be done, to obtain what is due me for my said services as aforesaid. Hereby obligating and binding myself to ratify and confirm the acts of him, my said agent, as fully as if I were personally present acting for myself.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto subscribe my name, with scrawl for seal, this eighth day of October, A. D. 1853.

James, B. Reavis (Seal)

The State of Texas,
County of Liberty } Before me, William Chambers, a Notary Public, in and for the County and State aforesaid, personally appeared, James B.
