I do hereby certify, that I was in Command of an expedition in 1839, known as the "Cordova" ~~expedition, and during the engagement with the~~ Mexican & Indians under "Cordova". Lt. Billingsley had a Horse Killed, the value of said Horse was estimated at One hundred & fifty dollars, $150.00 & I consider him worth that amount. —

Austin Octr. 16th 1849. —

Edward Burleson