To all whom it may concern.

Know ye that Capt. Samuel Bogart was enrolled in the service of the Republic on the 2[illegible]th September last. That the Company commanded by him was attached on the organization of the South Western Army to the first regiment of the same. That he faithfully performed the duties appertaining to his office as Captain. Such that he is now honorably discharged from the service of the Republic

Given this 20th January 1843.

A Somerville Brig. Genl
Comdg S.W. Army