We, F. Hopkins and L Simon Hugo do each of us respectively, solemnly swear that we were members of Captain Everett's company of volunteers in the service of the Republic of Texas under Gen. Davis in 1842 – that we were personally acquainted with O Bostwick who, to the best of our knowledge and belief, served as a private in said company from the ~~th~~ time it was organized until the army under command of Gen. Davis was disbanded, and that he was entitled to an honorable discharge and pay for the same.
