The Republic of Texas.

To James Fourland

Late Collector of Customs for the District of Red River Dr

For one half of the nett proceeds of the amount due as established by act of the Legislature, approved Feby 5th 1852. of a claim of the Late Republic of Texas against the Government of the United States for the forcible entry of Texian Custom House, by the Citizens of the United States at Bryarlays Landing in the District of Red River in the year 1843, that moiety being allowed Revenue officers for seizing goods, illegally introduced or imported, by the Laws of Texas, passed 1840, and the Laws of the United States to which, they refer And the further act of the Legislature of the State of Texas approved January 3rd 1848. with free reference to this act. To wit;

One half of gross amount	$ 27.050.00
less expenses of Collecting &c.	875.85
	26.174.15
By amount paid on account of the above as per receipt & settlement of acct. made Jany 8th 1848.	13.659.15
	$ 12.515.00