The corn at that time was worth two dollars pr bushel the flower was at that time worth sixteen dollars pr bbl the keg of Powder was worth sixty cts the rum was worth one dollar fifty cts the salt was worth ~~one dollar~~ three dollars pr bushel

~~[illegible]~~ I certify that these are as near the prices as I can ascertain

W H Patton
Quarter Mt General

Houston June the 27th 1837

3 bushels corn @ $2.	$6.00
2 bbls flower @ $16	32.00
25 lb. powder @ $.60.	15.00
Tobs	6.00
35 Galls Rum @ $150.	52.50
1½ bush Salt @ $3.	4.50
	$116.00

25
60
15,00 2/25
172
52

TX

R 25-1-2