Also, personally appeared Genl Hugh McLeod and Hon Jesse Walling, both to me well known who on oath say; Walling says, I am personally acquainted with the applicants Mrs Mary Ann Graham (formerly Brown) and Henry G. Brown, and know that they are the only legal heirs of Samuel B. Brown deceased, and that they are both now living in Cherokee County. Both say, we know that Dr Saml. B. Brown, did act in the capacity of Surgeon on the Cherokee Campaign in the Summer of 1839, and performed his duties as such, faithfully during said campaign, and that the wounded were taken to the Town of Nacogdoches, where they were attended by him. We therefore consider him entitled to pay for said services, if he has not already obtained it, for the period of about six weeks. We were both in said campaign.
