State of Texas }
County of Fannin } Before me Sam'l. J. Galbraith, Clerk of the County Court of said County aforesaid this day personally appeared Jackson McFarland to me well known, to be a man of truth & veracity, who after being duly sworn, states as follows: that in or about the year 1841 or 1842 he was a member of a Volunteer Company Commanded by Capt. Jamis Bourland ranging on the frontiers, on the Head waters of Trinity — that at the same time a man known as William G. Grinders, was also a member of said Company further that said Griner, or Grinder, whose name is signed "Grinders" on the Muster Roll of said Company; signs his name Griner, not Grinders, as he was improperly called, — and that he is the identical person he represents himself to be, and that he is the only man named Griner, or Grinders who served in said Company
