State of Arkansas
County of Independence

Be it remembered that on this 2d Day of October A.D. 1854 personally appeared before me John L Fraley an acting and duly commissioned Justice of the peace within and for the County and State above named, Alexander K. Erwin to me personally well known and who is a resident citizen of this county and entitled to credit, who being by me first duly sworn declares that he is the identical Alexander K. Erwin who served as a private in the Company of Texas Rangers in a campaign against the Indians in Texas commanded by Capt Thomas Green; that he served in said Company three months at twenty-five dollars per month; that said campaign was made in the year 1840, the precise date of its commencement and its end he does not now recollect; that he has never drawn his pay for said services as a ranger either from the government of Texas or from any other source and that his pay for said services is still due him from the State of Texas and that he makes this affidavit for the purpose of drawing said pay from the State of Texas.

Sworn to and subscribed before me the day and month above named — Alexander K Erwin
