The State of Texas }
County of Hays } Know all men by these presents that, whereas, I, the undersigned Henry R. Hallister, administrator of the estate of Cyrus K. Gleason, deceased, having by order of the County Court of said County, sold a certificate of discharge of said Cyrus K. Gleason, deceased — a claim against the late Republic of Texas for services rendered by said deceased as one of the "Mier Prisoners" (for the sum of twenty dollars) — having returned an account of sale to said Court — and the following order having, thereupon, been entered upon the minutes of the said Court, at the February term (1852) thereof:

"The estate of Cyrus K. Gleason, deceased. } It is decreed by the court that the account — returned on February 23d 1852 by Henry R. Hallister, administrator of said Cyrus K. Gleason, deceased, — of the sale made to one William Stone, by the said administrator, of a certificate of discharge of said deceased — a claim against the late Republic of Texas for services rendered by said deceased as one of the "Mier Prisoners" — be and the same is hereby confirmed; and it is ordered by the Court that said account of sale be recorded by the Clerk — and that a conveyance of the said certificate or claim be made by the said administrator to the purchaser thereof — said William Stone."