Before me Andrew Ingram, Judge of the Tippecanoe Circuit Court, Indiana, on the 23rd January 1856 personally appeared the above named James Colegrove, - David Smith and Permelia Smith his wife, - Francis Colegrove, - Charity Gripton, - Solomon Lasley and Melissa Lasley his wife, - and Riley Colegrove, and acknowledged that they signed, sealed and delivered the foregoing Power of attorney or instrument of writing, as their and each of their act and deed for the uses and purposes therein expressed; and the said Permelia Smith wife of the said David Smith, and the said Melissa Lasley wife of the said Solomon Lasley, having each been examined by me privately and apart from their respective husbands, and having the same fully explained to them respectively, they, the said Permelia Smith and the said Melissa Lasley, acknowledged the said Power of Attorney or instrument of writing to be their act and deed respectively, and declared that they had each of them willingly signed, sealed and delivered the same, and that they wished not to retract it.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the seal of said Court at La Fayette, in the County and State aforesaid on this 23rd day of January A.D. 1856.

Andrew Ingram,
Judge of said Tippecanoe Circuit Court, Indiana.
