"Texas Navy of War Wharton
Galveston, Aug. 5th 1843.

$207.66

This certificate entitles D. M. C. Creecy to the sum of Two hundred & Seven dollars and Sixty six cents for personal services in the Navy of Texas.

F. T. Miles
Pursr T. Navy

Appd
Wm C. Brashear
Naval Commisr."

"I hereby sell, assign and transfer to Christopher H. Pix, or his assigns, for value received, all my right title and interest in and to the within Certificate and to the Pay due upon the same, and authorized him & his assigns to collect and receive the same. Witness my hand this 12th of August 1843.
D. M. C. Creecy"

The above is a copy of the Pursers Certificate and the assignment filed by Mr. Pix. owing to the fact that the signature of Mr. Creecy was not authenticated we issued the certificate in the name of the original. So you will perceive that Mr. Pix cannot use it without another assignment. ~~The Certf. delivered to Mr. Pix is a copy of the one forwarded to you with the exception of the name No. date & amount.~~ I think it probable if you will address Mr. Pix (Who I believe lives at Galveston) you can make a satisfactory arrangement with him, as under the circumstances he cannot consistently object to giving