State of Texas
County of Washington } Affidavit of James C. Armstrong.

Affiant makes oath, that he was a Volunteer in Capt. C. Buster's Company, in the Mier Expedition, and that he was captured at Mier, by the Mexican forces; and that he was personally acquainted with John T. Dillon, now deceased; and that said John T. Dillon was a Volunteer in said Mier Expedition, in Capt. Cameron's Company, and that he served up to the time of his capture, and that he was actually captured, imprisoned and taken to the City of Mexico, by the Mexican forces. Affiant further makes oath, that he was familiarly acquainted with said John T. Dillon, for some years before he Emigrated to Texas, in Overton County Tennessee, and that Henry Dillon of said Overton County Tennessee, is the father of, and Sarah Dillon, the mother of said John T. Dillon. Affiant further states, that he, and said John T. Dillon came to the State of Texas, in company with each other, in the year 1836; and that affiant was upon terms of intimacy with him, up to the time of said Dillon's death.

J. C. Armstrong

Subscribed and sworn to before me Isaac N. Mayfield an acting justice of the Peace in and for the County of Washington and State of Texas. This 4th day of Jan. 1857. Isaac N. Mayfield J.P.