To all whom it may concern

Know ye —

That Phillip H Cammann, was enrolled in the service of the Republic of Texas at Matagorda on the 5th day of March 1836 as a Private, in the Battalion commanded by Col Bullock, and has continued in the service up to the date of these presents. The aforesd Cammann, left New York on the 21st Nov 1835, in the expedition, there fitted out, for Texas. And is entitled to the entire compensation, allowed by law for time, consumed, by troopes in reaching this Republic —

The aforesd Cammann, is hereby honorably discharged from, further service in the Army aforesd having performed his duty faithfully, for the stipulated term of his enlistment —

The aforesd Cammann — is five feet ten inches high, — light complexion, Hazel eyes — Sandy hair — Born in Amsterdam — and by occupation quill manufacturer

Camp Independence
March 5th 1837 — James Collinsworth
Capt Comdg

Approved
J. H. D. Rogers Col
1st Regt Vol Louisiana
T. A.

N. Y. Vol.

Attest
Felix Huston
Maj Gen T. A.

RSPH