Personally appeared before the undersigned authority clerk of Co. Ct. — and being sworn deposeth states that he was a private of Capt W. G. McGuffins Company — on the Somervelle Campaign in 1842 — that he enlisted in Co. Company about 1st Oct 1842 and served honorably & faithfully until 1st Dec 1842 and never received any pay discharge or compensation for the same & believes himself justly entitled to the pay allowed by act —

Robert J. Bridge

Also came personally appeared Thomas P. Cartwright & Joseph C. Cartwright who are citizens, & were known to me and being sworn state that all the matters & things stated by Robt J. Bridge is correct — that they & Thomas P. & Joseph C. were members of Capt Reagh on Somervelle Campaign 1842 and that they are disinterested witnesses —
